FINAL SUMMARY REPORT¹

I. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

On February 19, 2019, the Civilian Office of Police Accountability (COPA) received an Initiation Report from Sgt. Admira Ferizovic, #1022, alleging misconduct by a Chicago Police Department on behalf of ██████████. ██████████ alleged that on February 18, 2019, Officer Fernandez came to her home unannounced and uninvited, pushed her, blocked her path, and took her I-phone and failed to return it.² Upon review of the evidence, COPA served additional allegations that Officer Fernandez physically assaulted ██████████ threatened her, held her against her will, and failed to submit a To-From report notifying the Department that he was the respondent named in an Order of Protection. Following the investigation, COPA reached sustained findings regarding the allegations of holding ██████████ against her will, failing to return her I-phone, and failing to submit a To-From report to the department.

II. SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE³

On February 8, 2019, ██████████ went to the 019th District Station and reported⁴ that her ██████████, Officer Fernandez, whom she had broken up with two weeks prior, accosted her from behind as she was walking home from the train. Officer Fernandez stood in front of her, blocking her path, and asked her why she was not talking to him. ██████████ told him to leave her alone and threatened to call the police. ██████████ blocked Officer Fernandez's phone number, but he then started calling her from different numbers. ██████████ pulled out her cellular phone to call the police, but Officer Fernandez snatched it from her and refused to return it. ██████████ yelled for an unknown citizen to call the police. When Officer Fernandez diverted his attention to the citizen, ██████████ ran inside of her apartment building.

██████████ related to COPA that she and Officer Fernandez dated from Aug. 2017 to Sep. 2018, broke up briefly, and reconciled from January 2019 to February 2019. ██████████ reported that her first physical confrontation occurred in August 2018. The couple was arguing over religion and as she was exiting his vehicle, he forcefully grabbed her wrist, screamed at her, and refused to let her exit the vehicle.

¹ Appendix A includes case identifiers such as the date, time, and location of the incident, the involved parties and their demographics, and the applicable rules and policies.

² One or more of these allegations fall within COPA's jurisdiction pursuant to Chicago Municipal Code § 2-78-120. Therefore, COPA determined it would be the primary investigative agency in this matter.

³ The following is a summary of what COPA finds most likely occurred during this incident. This summary utilized information from several different sources, including civilian interviews, police report, and court records.

⁴ A general Case report for theft was generated under RD# JC157480.

⁵ Att. 9. ██████████ refused to provide an official statement to COPA in fear of retaliation. Therefore, an Affidavit Override was obtained.

█████ agreed to meet Officer Fernandez for breakfast at Corner Bakery on Sep. 4, 2018, and planned on telling him that the relationship was over. Officer Fernandez approached her driving in a police vehicle in front of █████ office building. Officer Fernandez told █████ to get in the vehicle and they would go to Starbucks. When she declined his offer, Officer Fernandez jumped out of the vehicle, blocked the door of her office building, and threatened to cause a scene. In an attempt to diffuse the situation, █████ entered his vehicle, and Officer Fernandez drove away. After Officer Fernandez drove on to the Kennedy Expressway traveling northbound, she asked where they were going, and he responded somewhere nobody would find her. Officer Fernandez took possession of █████ cell phone and continued to make threats against her of sending nude photos of her to her bosses.

After █████ failed to arrive at work, her supervisor, █████ began calling her repeatedly. Officer Fernandez returned her phone and instructed █████ to tell her boss that she was okay. Immediately after answering the phone, █████ told her boss that she was being held against her will. █████ reported being in the car for almost two hours before Officer Fernandez returned her to her place of employment.

In January 2019, the couple resumed their relationship. █████ ended the relationship after one month and informed Officer Fernandez not to contact her. Officer Fernandez also contacted █████ sister, although she never provided him with her sister's contact information.

On March 1, 2019, █████ obtained an Order of Protection against Officer Fernandez. Officer Fernandez was also ordered to pay █████ for the loss of her phone.

█████ submitted a thread of text messages and emails between herself and Officer Fernandez dating from Sep. 3 & 4, 2018. In one text message to █████ on Sep. 3, 2018, at approximately 9:06pm, Officer Fernandez wrote, "The next email will be carbon copied" and listed the email address of █████ and a few other coworkers of █████. At 9:58pm, █████ replied, "Stop contacting me." At 10:25pm, Officer Fernandez sent █████ another email stating, "Give it the attention it merits." During the email exchanges, Officer Fernandez and █████ arranged to meet at a coffee shop the next morning.

In an interview with COPA, █████ related that she has been █████ supervisor for approximately five years⁷. █████ reported having limited knowledge of the relationship between █████ and Officer Fernandez. █████ reported that on the morning of September 4, 2018, █████ sent her a text stating that she was running late for work. █████ then called █████ and told

The credibility of an individual relies primarily on two factors: 1) the individual's truthfulness and 2) the reliability of the individual's account. The first factor addresses the honesty of the individual making the statement, while the second factor speaks to the individual's ability to accurately perceive the event at the time of the incident and then accurately recall the event from memory. Officer Fernandez gave conflicting accounts of the

V. ANALYSIS¹⁷

COPA finds that Allegations #1 & 2 against Officer Fernandez, that he forcibly grabbed [REDACTED] by the wrist and refused to allow her to exit the vehicle is Not Sustained. COPA found no corroborating evidence of either. Although both parties acknowledged that there were altercations in the relationship, there is no witness, outcry witness or recordings of the allegations. It is more plausible that, as supported by the emails, Officer Fernandez repeatedly emailed. [REDACTED] threatening to carbon copy her employer and several of her employees but inverted the letters, until she agreed to meet him the morning of Sep. 4, 2018, at the Corner Bakery. Officer Fernandez was referring to [REDACTED] Officer Fernandez sent an email to [REDACTED] with her boss [REDACTED] email address in it.¹⁹

VI. DISCIPLINARY RECOMMENDATION

a. PO Enrique Delgado Fernandez

i. Complimentary and Disciplinary History²⁵

Officer Fernandez has received a total of three hundred and sixty-two awards, including one crime reduction award and three hundred and nine honorable mentions. He has one sustained complaint within the past five years for excessive force, receiving a ten-day suspension. She also received two reprimands, both for preventable accidents.

COPA has considered Officer Fernandez’s complimentary and disciplinary history. COPA has also considered the totality of the circumstances in this case. Officer Fernandez physically and emotionally abused [REDACTED] This physical abuse included pushing her to control her movement and emotionally abusing in the form of harassment and stalking. Domestic violence, in all forms, is a serious offense. Police officers committing domestic violence seriously undermines public trust in the Department. Appendix B

Definition of COPA's Findings and Standards of Proof

For each Allegation, COPA must make one of the following findings:

1. Sustained – where it is determined the allegation is supported by a preponderance of the evidence;
2. Not Sustained – where it is determined there is insufficient evidence to prove the allegations by a preponderance of the evidence;
3. Unfounded – where it is determined by clear and convincing evidence that an allegation is false or not factual; or
4. Exonerated – where it is determined by clear and convincing evidence that the conduct described in the allegation occurred, but it is lawful and proper.

A preponderance of evidence can be described as evidence indicating that it is more likely than not that a proposition is proved.³⁰ For example, if the evidence gathered in an investigation establishes that it is more likely that the conduct complied with Department policy than that it did not, even if by a narrow margin, then the preponderance of the evidence standard is met.

Clear and convincing evidence is a higher standard than a preponderance of the evidence but lower than the “beyond-a-reasonable doubt” standard required to convict a person of a criminal offense. Clear and convincing can be defined as a “degree of proof, which, considering all the evidence in the case, produces the firm and abiding belief that it is highly probable that the proposition . . . is true.”²⁶
