Vlctim was running northbound on Hermitage and hit him.

On scene, officers requested a call back to locate victim. Officers observed the victim walking from 83rd on Hermitage toward the address of occurrence, which is [REDACTED], breathing heavily and fearful of what had just transpired. R/O's observed a wig cap on the victim's head that appeared to be torn and clothes disheveled. Officers asked was she ok in which she related that she was just being chased by father of her child with a gun. Officers asked for a detailed description of offender. Victim related he had on a white t shirt and black joggers with a bag. Officers asked Victim what happened and it was related non verbatim as follows.

" I was on the phone with my baby daddy([O] CURRY, DAVID), when he start saying "come gets this baby, this baby ain't mine" etc." At this point is when she took an uber to his house to go and get their child. When she arrived there she was met by the offender and the verbal altercation continued. this is when he ripped her blue wig from her head and began to strike her about the left side of her face/ head area. During this physical engagement, [O] CURRY, DAVID, retrieved a black handgun from his bag and pointed it at the victim placing her in reasonable apprehension of receiving a battery. While Bt 0614 continued to gather more information, Bt. 0611 and Bt. 0613 canvassed area.

According to Bt. 0622, The Victim flagged them down and related that the offender beat her and had a gun and fled northbound through the alley. Bt. 0622 observed the offender running northbound. bt. 0622 then pursued the offender through the alley and then observed the offender throw the gun with a extended magazine onto the roof of 8132 s. hermitage. Bt.0622 then conducted a foot pursuit (2024-28440544). Bt.0622 then caught up to the offender at 8114 s. hermitage, in the alley and as the R/O from ran toward the offender, the offender abruptly stopped and the R/O unable to stop their momentum in time made contact with the offender, causing the offender to fall forward and hit their head on the ground. R/O's from Bt. 0622 called for ems at the location of the arrest. R/O's from Bt. 0622 placed him in custody at the address of 8114 s. Hermitage ave in the west alley with a weapon recovered. R/O's from Bt. 0622 observed the offender bleeding from the left ear and immediately rendered aid by putting the offender in a recovery position and did sternum rubs on the chest and back of the offender. R/O's from Bt. 0622 observed the offender begin having a seizure like movement, by stiffened arms and legs. R/O's from Bt. 0622 stated the offender eventually woke up and was sat up until the CFD amb#18 was on scene.

The offender was transported to Christ in fair condition for injuries sustained during his attempt to flee the scene. Bt. 0613 rode with Ambulance 18 to hospital to gather Dr. information and update on medical incident. Victim signed complaints. Refused EMS and E.T for photo documentation of injuries. Victim information Notice and Domestic Incident Notice provided to the victim.
